Summary

A highly motivated individual who for over two decades has managed and developed several businesses in the UK & Abroad. I excel in creating and motivating team spirit and leading by example. I have built a reputation for developing successful businesses which achieved and sustained profitability for many years (plus at times selling and/or merging with other companies.) I have been the MD for manufacturing & producing companies, commercial companies, import & export companies, a property company, a marketing & distribution company, represented & developed markets for major international brands, taken on franchise's and been a professional business consultant & a director within the sports industry.

My focus as Production Director would always be to ensure my businesses keep developing to their optimal, offering a real depth of business knowledge, having many years of high level experience in managing people, multi operations, in depth marketing strategies, development & expansion, sales, procurement, inventory control, and building very profitable commercial distribution networks & strategic channels for my companies.
